

We listen to each other.
We use polite expressions.

We treat each other with respect.

Teachers, with the help of specialists,
will try to solve your problems.

We say NO to all forms of violence and aggression!

We are tolerant towards everyone.

Support your friends. They often trust you the most.

If you have witnessed violence or aggression at home or at school, report it to your homeroom teacher or school counselor.

No one has the right to record or take pictures of you without your consent.

In our school, we have a staff that continuously undergoes training to ensure your safety.

